

Blue Wing

Built in 1972 to create exhibit space for the expanding Museum, the Blue Wing encloses three levels of galleries wrapped around a towering central hall. A 45-foot-long T. rex lurks in one corner; optical illusions adorn a wall; an Apollo module floats overhead. A revolving array of exhibit components creates an unusual and dynamic atmosphere for your guests, while soaring ceilings and expansive spaces provide a touch of grandeur.

Capacity

Function Options

Maximum Guests

Plated meal or buffet stations with full seating (10 per table): terrace-well only	200
Plated meal or buffet stations with podium (10 per table): terrace-well only	160
Plated meal or buffet stations and dancing (10 per table): terrace-well only	180
Plated or buffet stations with full seating throughout the entire terrace level (capacity depends on current exhibits)	300
Buffet stations on 3 floors (only option for meals on 3 floors)	650
Reception with limited seating (one-third)	900

Availability

Available for evening events after 6:30 p.m. Various room layouts are available, please call the Event & Conference Services Department for further information

